Gentlemen:

I am trying to obtain some nice photographs of certain 1788 Connecticut cents and wonder if you have beautiful specimens
of any of the following:

Miller 3 (1) B-(1)

Miller 4 (2)-R

Miller 6-H

Mr. Noe, at one time, showed me your Connecticut cents and I would appreciate your help.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Newman:

Replying to your letter of February 6, I find that the only specimen of the types which you list, which the Museum has in passable condition, is Miller 3 (1) B-(1). The other two are surely not good enough for reproduction.

In the circumstances, I ~~do~~ suggest that you get in touch either with the New Jersey Historical Society, or with Mr. Damon G. Douglas, a member and councilor of this Society, who might be able to advise you with regard to the location of better specimens. Mr. Douglas' address is 75 Prospect Street, East Orange, N. J.

Dear Dr. Miles:

This summer my wife and I visited some of the Iron Curtain countries and in Prague I visited the coin collection of the National Museum of Bohemia. They showed me their superb collection of early Celtic pieces and I talked at length with Dr. Pavel Radomersky and Dr. Jarmila Stepkova. Miss Stepkova is the specialist in Oriental numismatics and asked me to give to you reprints of some of her writings. You may already be familiar with them but I said that you would enjoy having them if you did not already have them available.

She asked me if it would be embarrassing for her to ask you for a copy of the coins of the Visigoths and I told her that I am sure that you would send it to her or that if you sent it to me I would send it to her. Would it therefore be possible for you to show her that courtesy. In order to clear censorship it is necessary to send it to her C/o Narodni Museum, Prague, The Praha 2, Czecho Slovakia. You should feel free to write her concerning any material they have in their large collection.

I was very much impressed by the research in numismatics which they are doing in Prague and I also had the opportunity to visit the numismatic collection in Tbilisi, Georgia, which is enormous. The "red tape" involved in visiting the numismatic collection at the Hermitage, in Leningrad, was too much for me and I therefore never had the opportunity of seeing it.

Keep up your wonderful research work as it is sincerely appreciated and respected all over the world.

Kindest regards.

Cordially yours,

P.S. If you have an extra copy of part 1 and part 2 of the Coinage of the Umayyads of Spain, I would like to send them to a student of Spanish coins.

Dear Mr. Newman,

I must apologize to you for the long delay in acknowledging your letter of August 27th. I have been away on vacation and have only just returned to my desk. I was interested to learn of your visit to various coin cabinets abroad and I am grateful to you for sending me reprints from Miss Stepkova. At least one of these articles is familiar to me but the others I had not seen.

I find that I have one remaining personal copy of my book on the coinage of the Visigoths and I shall send this copy to Miss Stepkova as a gesture of good will to a numismatist unfortunately behind the iron curtain. I shall also send her a few reprints of articles of mine which she very probably has not had an opportunity to see. I am sorry to say I have no copies left of my coinage of the Umayyads of Spain and I cannot therefore meet your request without purchasing a copy from the Society. The book is still in print and can be ordered directly from the office of the Secretary. As you well realize we authors receive only a limited number of complimentary copies of our books, and my own supply has long been exhausted.

I am sorry to hear that you had no success in seeing the collection at the Hermitage in Leningrad. I have never been there myself but of recent years I have had very friendly and cooperative letters from the curator of Islamic coins there, and Miss Thompson, <sup>our</sup> curator of Greek coins, has had some success in getting information and plaster casts of coins in which she is interested.

Dear Dr. Miles:

Joan Martin, of the British Museum, just wrote me that there is available, for sale, a catalogue of Greek Coins, Arabia, Mesopotamia and Persia, by G. F. Hill, London, 1922. She indicates this is a very scarce item and I did not know whether the library or you were interested in acquiring it. It is owned by Miss Linda F. Stone, 17, Egerton Terrace, London, S.W. 3.

She also has a Shahs of Persia, by Reginald Stuart Poole, London, 1887.

Both books are in perfect condition.

If interested, I suggest you contact Mrs. Martin, whom you no doubt know well.

Dear Eric:

I recently inquired through executive director George C. Miles of the American Numismatic Society about the possibility of becoming a Fellow of Society. He has informed me that the presently constituted by-laws require that twenty recommendations from the current roster of Fellows be presented, before the Council considers such action.

I am a relative youngster in both coin collecting and age, having first started collecting in 1950 at a young age. I have taken an active interest in the field since first being urged to collect something by a stamp collecting friend 17 years ago. I was admitted to the ANS as an Associate member in 1958, and since about then have devoted my best personal efforts to the field of tokens and medals.

Would you consider recommending me for election as a Fellow member of the Society? If you will consider it, I would appreciate your addressing a letter of recommendation to Mr. Miles at your convenience.

Thanking you for your kind and considerate attention to this request, I am,

Sincerely yours,

It would be my pleasure to sponsor you for being elected a Fellow of A.N.S. I think it would be helpful if you would send your sponsors a list of your writings.

There is only one reason you might not want to use me as a sponsor and that is that I am on the Council of A.N.S. and must pass on your fellowship.

I see nothing wrong in being a sponsor as there is no real conflict of interest.

March 14, 1967

Eric P. Newman
Numismatic Education Society

Dear Eric:-

Thanks for consenting to sponsor me for election as a Fellow of the A.N.S. As long as you see no conflict of interest in this nomination with your position on the Council, I appreciate your consideration as I only requested recommendations from about 20 Fellows who I know personally or have at least corresponded with.

You mention that I should list my writings for the sponsors, which is, I am sure, a good idea. By far the bulk of my articles do not carry a by-line, as I have been primarily involved in writing on current events during my past four years here in Iola. Prior to that I had written a few articles on contemporary medals and tokens for both Numismatic News and Coin World.

From 1958 through 1963 I authored and published annual listings of the new medal and token (commemorative) issues of the United States and Canada. These compilations were intended to record for future generations of numismatists the full facts surrounding the issues, something which is badly missing in our past.

For the past four years I have edited "The Exonumist Page" which has appeared in every issue of Numismatic News. For nearly three years now I have been editor of the TAMS Journal. I became editor of Numismatic News in the Fall of 1964, and about six months ago was given the task of heading up the editorial staff for all Krause publications.

Two of my most recent by-lined articles have appeared in COINS Magazine. One develops the story of silver's relation to our nation's coinage history, and is entitled "Anatomy of A Coin Shortage." The other, entitled "The Mardi Gras and Its Pageantry Medals," is devoted to the 1967 medals issued in New Orleans.

Certainly my efforts are pale in comparison with those of many others of the A.N.S. Fellows. However, I hope they are sufficient at least for the average.

Sincerely yours,

Clifford Mishler

Dear Eric:-

It was just about ten months ago that I wrote you in quest of a recommendation for a Fellow member status in the American Numismatic Society for myself. You offered to extend one, pointing out that I might not care to have you as a sponsor since you must pass on fellowships.

Since that time I have been successful in obtaining 19 of the required 20 nominations. However, that number has dried up the well of those I personally know who are Fellows, and I do not like to request recommendations from strangers. So, I you are still willing to sponsor me, and I see no objection because of your position if you do not, I would be grateful for the consideration.

I would hope that I could someday return the favor to you in some way.

Hoping the holiday season has been a good one for you, I remain,

I have just read the letter of Renzo Bertani, on page 4 of the May 3, 1967 COIN WORLD. This confirms the facts others have alleged. I do not know what expulsion from membership in ANS has been based upon in the past, but I believe this is a case for prompt consideration by the Council. I do not feel that ANS should have members who sell unmarked forgeries coined from forged dies and with the same metal and weight as original pieces. Whether they are originally sold as copies or not by the original vendor it is obvious that they will be. Imagine what this practice can lead to if condoned. It is an insult to the dignity of numismatics.

Please let me hear from you.

Dear George:

At your convenience would you be nice enough to let me have a valuation of the specific groups of coins given to the Society during 1971.

I do not believe this will be any extra work for you as you already have the valuations on hand in a schedule.

Kindest regards,

Sincerely yours,

Dear George:

Thanks to you, Evelyn and I had a truly delightful experience in Philadelphia. The intellectual stimulation and the encouragement by the members were matched by their kindness and charm. We will remember it always.

Our only disagreement was that Evelyn preferred to see the slides shown during the medical talks in black and white on the closed circuit television upstairs rather than see them in color as you and I did.

I am grateful for the opportunity to try to reconfirm numismatics as "useful knowledge" and I hope I did not let you down.

Sincerely,

Dear Eric -

Margaret Thompson tells me that you might prepare a paper for the 1973 Congress.
I do hope you will! Not only are we, so far, in proposed papers in the American field but one from you would be a first-class drawing card. I only regret that papers are going to have to be limited to 20 minutes.
Let me know the title as you convenience.

Just back from Greece +
Oxford, and busy.

Yours always.

Dear Eric -

I have been assigned the job of planning our exhibit of Colonial money for our 1973 Congress exhibition of the coinages of the Americas, and have begun to think about it. I am allotted four cases and I should say we want two of them for paper money.

If we (the ANS) lack good specimens of particularly attractive issues, would you be willing to lend any of yours? I would material, such as color reproductions or the like to jazz up the exhibit?

Could we perhaps talk about it briefly if you are coming to the meeting on November 11? Please don't heckle me during my "Bird" talk.

Yes. always.

George Under.

Dear George:

We will gladly furnish whatever coins or paper money we have available and which you desire for the 1973 International Numismatic Congress Special Exhibition in New York.

We presume you will have four cases for the North American Colonial and that this does not include Central or South American Colonial.

A piece of Canadian card money would be desirable and if you do not have one I believe the Norwebs could lend one.

We might lend such unusual things as:

Sheet of four 1709 New York notes

1722 Mass. shaped money on parchment

British Economic Warfare Counterfeits of Continental Currency

1750 Mass. pocket exchange guide

Early Mass. coin scale

Etc.

I expect to be there on Saturday to hear your program.

Cordially,

Dear Eric -

After I wrote you yesterday
I discovered that we already had your "release" for your paper money, scales etc. which you have lent. So please ignore that last paragraph of my letter and the "release" form. Sorry.

Yrs.
